

The christian community celebrates K-Love radio as a source of inspiration, healing and prayer. Since it is funded by people like me, I would sure like to see it continue and not be replaced by an LPFM broadcaster. It would be such a loss of outreach and ministry. As their slogan suggests: Positive and Encouraging. Who couldn't use more of that? Please keep K-Love on the airwaves! Praise God!